

Apex pharmaceutical was established in the year 2052 as a pharmaceuticals manufacturing company with a vision to serve the nation & its population with high quality medicines at an affordable price. The production unit has been backed up with family automatic liquid line, blister, strip, machine for capsule & tablet dosage for dry syrup and ointment manufacturing unit to meet the optimum demand of the population. Apex pharmaceuticals as one of the leading pharmaceuticals manufacturing company has established its credibility among the medical fraternity & has earned the confidence of leading practitioners, medical consultants, doctors & celebrities of the medical field with its range of quality medicine and has been recognized as one of the fastest growing companies in the Pharma industry.

Apex pharmaceuticals has a privilege of introducing many pioneer national brands in the category of antispasmodic, amoebicides, antipyretic, Antibiotics, derma preparations & antiulcerants with its indigenous technology & highly qualified & competent team of pharmacist with a vision of providing medication at a most affordable cost for better public healthcare.

Apex emerged with a plan of attaining WHO/GMP by the end of 2062 & has been finally involved in equipping itself with all pre requisites for WHO/GMP.

Apex is one of the professionally managed with a team of professionals and manufacturing various penicillin, non penicillin dosage forms such as tablets, Capsules, dry syrup, liquids & optimum range of products & has a plan of expanding its unit with more efficient & high-tech machines for fundamental growth in quality as well as in production to cater the product to different parts of the country as well as to export in future.

Apex with the help of its qualified & experienced team of pharmacist has been strictly abiding in accordance to the GMP norms for production of medicines with a motto "Quality in totality".

Apex has a very well equipped and self sufficient in house laboratory for ensuring high quality control in production, where modern and sophisticated apparatus are being operated by technically qualified & highly competent professionals to ensure the corporate motive of "Quality in totality".

For ethical and genuine promotion of its range of products the company has two marketing wings one is Pharma Division & other Pulsar with a strongly diversified strategy for ethical promotion of its safe, efficacious and quality medicines at different level of medical fraternity for much better public health.

The products are living catered to different parts of the country through authorized whole sale dealer/ stockiest with a help of professional marketing team.

Apex has always channelised its businesses through qualified professional of related field & could create a mile stone in achieving overall excellence with the help of in excellent team work. Which leads towards, the achievement of its corporate goal. Apex strongly believes on up gradation of its employee and continuous progress in every sector of operation & to equip with better technology to increase in knowledge and efficiency of an individual. The company has been contenting seminars & trainings periodically.

Apex is proud to have some the products which have paved the path for freedoms growth of molecule as a whole.